

21 August 1970

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

INDIAN, ESKIMO EXPERT JOINS SGWU FACULTY

An authority on Indian and Eskimo culture, Charles Brant, has been appointed full professor of anthropology and sociology at Sir George Williams.

Brant, 50, was born and educated in the United States and became a naturalized Canadian. He was Social Science Resident at the Albert Einstein College of Medicine in New York and later continued his research at the University of Saskatchewan.

Brant has published numerous articles for The Nation, the Delphian Quarterly and other journals on Indian and Eskimo culture and on his other research interest, Indo China.

Brant has taught at Michigan State, California, Sarah Lawrence and more recently at the University of Alberta.

- 30 -

Joel McCormick
Information Assistant